Morison KSi establishes representation in Tunisia

Morison KSi is pleased to announce the admission of Cabinet THK as a member firm in Tunis, Tunisia.

Founded in 2007, Cabinet THK is a full-service accounting firm, which also offers a wide range of multidisciplinary services, including corporate finance, consulting, and legal services.

The firm has well-established links with foreign investors in France, Germany, and Switzerland across a range of industries, including oil and gas, medicine, real estate, and tourism.

With their special focus on providing professional, flexible and client-centric solutions, Cabinet THK not only broadens Morison KSi's geographic reach, but also enhances the diverse range of skillsets and specialisations represented within the association.
