

Morison International Expands its Dutch Representation

Morison International (MI) has expanded its representation in the Netherlands with De Hooge Waerder (DHW International) joining the association.

De Hooge Waerder has 5 offices based around the Amsterdam area in the province of North Holland. The high-profile firm currently ranks in the top 5 accounting firms in the province of North Holland.

DHW International

The firm, which was founded in 1980, has 150 employees and offers accounting, audit, tax, corporate finance, personnel administration, consulting and legal services.

De Hooge Waerder's client-base operates in a wide variety of industries such as construction, automotive, metallurgy, catering and financial services. The firm has substantial international experience with a number of clients with business interests overseas.

De Hooge Waerder will complement MI's existing member firm Hoek en Blok, based in the province of South Holland, who is a founding member of MI and very active in the association.

Mr Toon Thomasse will be the International Liaison Partner for De Hooge Waerder.

On behalf of all member firms, MI is delighted to welcome De Hooge Waerder to the association.
