

MHA MacIntyre Hudson awarded National Firm of the Year at the British Accountancy Awards

Morison International (MI) is delighted to announce that its UK member firm, MHA MacIntyre Hudson, was awarded National Firm of the Year at the British Accountancy 2013 Awards on 20 November 2013.

The judges were impressed by the firm's desire to increase the quality of its client base, while investing in the business.

Its strong CSR policy was also noted by judges.

Rakesh Shaunak, MHA MacIntyre Hudson's Chairman, says: 'We are delighted to have been awarded National Firm of the Year. It is a recognition of our strategy and continued growth by our peers. Everybody at the firm worked really hard to achieve this and I am really proud of the business we have built.'

On behalf of MI and its member firms, we would like to congratulate MHA MacIntyre Hudson on this achievement and on its successful, ongoing development.
