Alhard von Ketelhodt honoured with the Order of the Oak Crown

Morison KSi is pleased to announce that Alhard von Ketelhodt, the Managing Partner of Fiduciaire Eurolux (Luxembourg), has been honoured with the Order of the Oak Crown in the grade of Knight by the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.

The Order of the Oak Crown, established in 1841 by Grand Duke William II, is awarded to Luxembourg or, in special cases, foreign citizens for outstanding performance in governmental and other public services as well as to the key players in economic, social, cultural or sports sectors.

It has been awarded to Alhard von Ketelhodt for his dedicated services in the field of tax advisory, accounting and audit services during the last decades.

On behalf of Morison KSi and its members we congratulate Alhard and the firm on this impressive recognition!
